

Anna Golynskaya Named to Private Equity International's 40 Under 40: Future Leaders of Private Equity

Anna Golynskaya, Managing Director on General Atlantic's Capital Partnering team, has been named to Private Equity International's 40 Under 40: Future Leaders of Private Equity 2021. Anna was recognized for her role in securing commitments from major LPs, increasing LP representation from Latin America and Asia, closing the firm's first ever partnership with a private wealth platform and leading the creation of GA's first continuation vehicle. PEI also recognized Anna's work in organizing summits, roundtables and webinars designed to expand GA's engagement with investors, as well as contributing to the firm's ESG initiatives as co-chair of GA's ESG Council.

The annual Future 40 list recognizes individuals under the age of 40 considered to be rising stars and future leaders within the private equity industry. PEI's editorial team drew the list for consideration from nominations and suggestions from its industry sounding boards. The final 40 were selected based on their career trajectory and their ability to influence the industry in the years ahead.
