

Gabriel Caillaux Named to Private Equity News' Fifty Most Influential in Private Equity 2022 List

Gabriel Caillaux, Co-President, Managing Director and Head of EMEA at General Atlantic, was named to Private Equity News' Fifty Most Influential in Private Equity 2022 List for his contributions to the firm's growth, investing track record across Europe and expansion into new sectors and geographies.

Curated by Private Equity News' team of editors, this list honors Europe-based senior leaders across the private equity industry, including financial sponsor bankers, large institutional investors, lawyers, allocators and executives at private equity firms. The editors consider a variety of criteria to judge influence, focusing on the individual's firepower, track record and ability to shape the European private equity market.
