

Héloïse Marleau Named to Private Equity News' Rising Stars of PE List

Héloïse Marleau, Vice President at General Atlantic, has been named to Private Equity News' (PEN) Rising Stars of PE list. The list has been curated by PEN's editorial team, which selects 25 up-and-coming young executives within the industry.

Héloïse has been recognized for her work leading GA's activity in France, in addition to her broader focus on technology sector investments across the wider EMEA region. Her inclusion in this year's list of PEN's Rising Stars emphasizes her outstanding achievements to date and underscores her capabilities as a leader in the space.
