

Jonathan Korngold Named to Institutional Investor's "Fintech Finance 40" List

Jonathan Korngold, Managing Director and Global Head of General Atlantic's Financial Services Sector, was named the top investor (and #2 overall) to Institutional Investor's "Fintech Finance 40," a list of top players in fintech investing. He was named #1 to Institutional Investor's "Fintech Finance 35" last year.

This list is selected by Institutional Investor's editorial team, with input from industry participants and experts. Nominees are evaluated based on their achievements and leadership at their respective firms, influence in the community at large, and the size, reputation, and impact of the respective funds and institutions in the financial technology industry.
