

Melis Kahya Named to Financial News' Rising Stars in Private Equity 2017 List

Melis Kahya, Vice President in General Atlantic's London office, was named in Financial News' list of the 25 rising stars in private equity. The list honors professionals who are under the age of 40, based in the UK, and have demonstrated excellence in their field. Melis moved to London in 2016 to lead General Atlantic's Retail & Consumer business in EMEA and recently led on the firm's first retail investment in the region, a growth investment in Copenhagen-based Joe & the Juice.
