

Shantanu Rastogi Awarded as Top “40 Under Forty” Business Leader by Economic Times

Shantanu Rastogi, Managing Director in General Atlantic’s Mumbai office, was selected by the Economic Times as one of India’s “40 Under Forty” top business leaders of 2019. Shantanu focuses on investments in the firm’s Financial Services, Healthcare, and Consumer sectors in the India & Southeast Asia region.

The Economic Times conducts the annual study in partnership with Spencer Stuart. The criteria used to assess the finalists is a combination of quantitative business results (growth, margins, turnaround), contribution to the business ecosystem and qualitative attributes (innovation, reputation, people leadership). Functional leaders who have performed exceptionally and created significant business impact are also considered. The final 40 winners are selected by a jury led by Harsh Goenka (Chairman, RPG Group) and published in the Economic Times. The 2019 “40 Under Forty” is the publication’s sixth-annual list.

SOURCE: Economic Times

Full Article: https://economictimes.indiatimes.com/fortyunderforty2019_list.cms