

David Buckley

Managing Director

Region: 1
Office Location: New York, Stamford

David Buckley is a Managing Director and leads General Atlantic's Growth Acceleration Group, which integrates market research, data science, and revenue acceleration efforts across the firm's global investment program at every stage in the investment lifecycle. David and his team work closely with portfolio company executive teams to support key digital marketing, pricing optimization, and sales effectiveness initiatives, and by providing access to the GA Network. Before joining General Atlantic in 2011, David worked at McKinsey & Company where he served clients in the High Tech, Private Equity, and Industrial sectors as a member of the Marketing and Sales practice. Previously, he served as a Captain in the United States Army.

Current Board Affiliations

Nanovic Institute for European Studies (University of Notre Dame), Advisory Board Member

Education

University of Notre Dame, B.A., Government and History
Princeton University, Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, M.P.P.