

Kerri Rauschenbach

Vice President, Head of IT Governance and Risk

Region: 1

Office Location: New York

Kerri Rauschenbach is the Head of IT Governance, Risk and Programs at General Atlantic, a member of the Global Information Technology management team and the Global Privacy Team. Before joining General Atlantic in 2018, Kerri was the founder of Metis Advisory consulting, prior to that she was the Global Data Risk and Control officer at Barclays. Kerri began her career at Ernst and Young in the Financial Service office focusing on IT, Operational and Privacy Risk.

Education

James Madison University, BBA, Computer Information Systems